The rain last week did a world of good on the ranges. Grass was suffering for the want of moisture and stockmen from all parts of the county agreed that cattle had been falling off for some time. Enough ram fell to insure a good growth of gram for the remainder of this month.

The Santa Fe company is not yet able to furnish cars enough to supply the demand from stockmen. There are still thousands of head of cattle in the county awaiting shipment but it will be well toward the end of next month before the cattle awaiting shipment are all
